International Money Transfer Terms and Disclosure Statement

At the Catholic Development Fund (CDF), we are committed to supporting your financial needs, including international money transfers. This section provides the key terms, responsibilities, and important details to ensure a smooth and transparent transfer process.

The Catholic Development Fund (CDF) assumes no responsibility for circumstances beyond its control, including but not limited to actions of other parties connected to the transaction. In the absence of its proven negligence, the CDF shall not be liable for any loss or damage suffered as a result of the CDF acting on these instructions in good faith.

Subject to circumstances beyond the CDF's control (such as international communications breakdown and problems or delays in the processing of the payment message by the overseas bank), money sent overseas is normally available for payment to the beneficiary within two business days (Australian time) of the Bank's acceptance of the sender's instructions. Payment of the transferred money to the beneficiary is the responsibility of the overseas banks. The timing of the payment and conversion to a local or other currency is subject to the domestic payment regulations and individual Correspondent Bank practices in the country of the beneficiary and therefore beyond the CDF's control. All enquiries to overseas banks concerning payment will be at the cost of the sender.

By applying for an International Money Transfer (IMT):

I/We acknowledge that, in order for the CDF to make payment, it may have to utilise the services of the Commonwealth Bank (CBA) and other banks, other than the one(s) requested.

- I/We acknowledge that the CDF will be obliged to accept the return of proceeds of a money transfer if acceptance of those proceeds is refused for any reason by any party connected with or having jurisdiction over the transaction. Any proceeds so received may be credited to the account to which the money transfer was originally debited. The CDF will not be liable for any losses or damage whatsoever as a result of the return of the proceeds in such circumstances.
- I/We also acknowledge that the CDF has an absolute discretion to decline to process my/our application for a money transfer if the CDF believes (whether on reasonable grounds or otherwise) in good faith that processing the application would offend against any policy or law relating to money laundering and/or the national interests and/or national security of any State. The CDF will not be liable to any party for any loss or damage whatsoever arising from any decision based on any of the above grounds not to process my/our application.
- I/We acknowledge that exchange rates are indicative only and are subject to change. The exchange rate will be determined when my/our transaction is confirmed and the rate printed on my/our confirmation receipt is the rate that will apply to my/our payment, regardless of when my/our payment is processed.

Foreign currency funds returned to the CDF for any reason will be converted back to Australian dollars using the Commonwealth Bank's carded exchange rate applicable on the day the notification of the return is received and will be credited to the remitter's account specified in the IMT application.

Fees and Charges

The CBA scheduled fee will be charged for each IMT and will be charged to your account. In addition to this fee, the processing of this IMT to the beneficiary will be subject to fees and charges imposed by overseas banks involved in the transaction. There may be more than one overseas bank involved, each of which may seek reimbursement for its services. Overseas banks will be instructed to deduct their fees from the IMT. Where such fees are deducted, you must assume that the beneficiary will receive a lower amount than the amount sent. If, for whatever reason, the overseas bank or their correspondent bank fails to observe these instructions, the remitter will reimburse the CDF for any fees or charges which an overseas bank may separately levy against the CDF.
